You may “opt out” of receiving promotional communications from WS AGENCY by contacting us at the email address shown at the end of this Privacy Policy. Please note that changing your information through your user profile settings, or otherwise opting out of receipt of communications from WS AGENCY, will only change or delete the data for purposes of future activities on our Services and for managing future communications from WS AGENCY.

Sharing of Information

We may share your information with the following:

- Colleges and Other Users of the mobile/online application. We may share your information directly with educational institutions, college coaches, and athletic directors for the purposes of our services. The mobile/online application may also provide opportunities for you and other users to connect with each other socially and to view each other's profiles. To achieve this, certain information you provide may be shared with other users of the Services.
- Affiliates. We may share your information with our affiliates, companies that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, WS AGENCY. These entities may use your information to make predictions about your interests and may provide you with offers, promotional materials, advertisements, and other materials.
- Partners. We may share your information with partners who provide products or services that may be of interest to you or student-athletes, including: (i) educational products and services (e.g., colleges, student loans, financial aid, college admissions and tutorial services, and extra-curricular enrichment and recognition programs); (ii) career, employment, and military opportunities; (iii) products of consumer focused companies; (iv) sports related activities; and (v) other relevant products and services. These partners may use your information to make predictions about your interests and may provide you with offers, promotional materials, advertisements, and other materials. We also may share your information with partners, that share your information with college admissions departments.
- Service Providers. We also may share your information with entities that provide services to us, including companies that provide payment processing, shipping, web analytics, data processing, web hosting, technical support, advertising, email distribution, and other services.
- Other Parties When Required by Law or as Necessary to Protect Our Services.

There may be instances when we disclose your information to other parties in order to:

- Protect the legal rights of WS AGENCY, its affiliates, and of the users of the Services;
- Protect the safety and security of users of the Services;

- Prevent fraud (or for risk management purposes); or
- Comply with or respond to the law or legal process or a request for cooperation by a government entity, whether or not legally required.
- Other Parties in Aggregated Form. We may also share your information with third parties in aggregated or non-personally identifiable form.
- Other Parties in Connection With a Transfer of Assets. If we make a sale or transfer of assets, or are otherwise involved in a merger, divestiture, acquisition, liquidation, or transfer, or in the unlikely event of bankruptcy, we may transfer your information to one or more third parties as part of that transaction.
- Other Parties With Your Consent. In addition to the sharing described in this Privacy Policy, we may share information about you with other third parties when you consent to such sharing.

If you do not want your information shared with any third party who may use such information for direct marketing purposes, then you may opt out of such disclosures by sending an email to us at opappsoporte@gmail.com

WS AGENCY is not responsible for the use of the information by third parties, such as the one that is automatically made public when a User uses the mobile/online application, that is the one obtained by the Internet web search engine, since it may automatically save a history of all accessed information, download files, among other actions.

Third-Party Functionality

As mentioned before, some of the functionality of the mobile/online application may be provided by third parties that are not affiliated with WS AGENCY. These entities may collect or receive certain information about your use of the mobile/online application, including through the use of cookies, Web beacons, and similar technologies. WS AGENCY is not responsible for the privacy practices of these entities.

Protection of Information

We use reasonable physical and technical measures to safeguard information in our possession against loss, theft and unauthorized use, disclosure, or modification. Please note, however, that no data transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect the information we maintain, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information that you transmit to us. Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password for access to certain parts of our Services, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask that you not share your password with anyone.

Children's Information

The Services are neither intended for nor directed at children younger than 13 years of age. We do not knowingly collect or store personal information about children under the age of 13.

Changing or Deleting Your Personal Information

We wish to maintain accurate personal information. If you have submitted personal information through the mobile/online application and set-up an account, then you can (i) access and update your personal information by logging into your online account and making the appropriate changes or (ii) delete your account by emailing us at opappsoporte@gmail.com. Please note that if you delete your account, we may continue to retain your information on our servers for archival purposes. If you have forgotten your login credentials, you can retrieve those via our automated password retrieval system.

Targeted Advertising

In some cases, we and advertisers on the mobile/online application that work with other third-party vendors to help deliver advertisements targeted to your interests. These vendors include ad networks and analytics providers, and they use cookies or other technologies to collect information about your online activity (e.g., the sites and pages you have visited) in order to help advertisers deliver particular ads that they believe you would find most relevant.

Please note that, because these opt-out tools will place a cookie on your computer to record your opt-out preference, any actions you take using these tools will apply only to the web browser that you use to take the action. Also, these tools may not work as expected if you set your browser to refuse cookies.

Sometimes, our advertisers will contract with a third-party service to host their ads. In this case, an ad-serving vendor contacts the advertisers' hosting service to obtain a particular advertisement. Because we do not have a relationship with these third parties, we do not have a mechanism to allow visitors to opt out of tracking by these vendors.

Cookies, Web Beacons, and Similar Technologies

WS AGENCY — as well as certain third parties that provide content and other functionality on the mobile/online application may use a variety of technologies to learn more about how people use the mobile/online application services and the Internet. This section provides more information about some of those technologies and how they work.

- Cookies. Cookies are small text files that websites and other online services use to store information about users on the users' own computers. For example, cookies can be used to store your sign-in credentials so that you do not have to enter them each time you return to a website. Cookies also may be used to store a unique identification number tied to your computer so that a website can recognize you as the same user across different visits to the website. You can configure your Internet browser to warn you each time a cookie is being sent or to refuse cookies completely.

WS AGENCY and the third parties that provide content or functionality on the Services may use cookies to:

- Collect information about your browsing activities in order to provide you with more relevant content and ads off the mobile/online application; and

- Relate the information automatically collected when you use the Services to information we obtain from you directly or from commercially available sources.
- Other local storage. We, along with third-party partners, may use other kinds of local storage, such as Local Shared Objects (also referred to as “Flash cookies”) and HTML5 local storage, in connection with the Services. These technologies are similar to the cookies discussed above in that they are stored on your computer and can be used to store certain information about your activities and preferences. These objects are stored in different parts of your computer from ordinary browser cookies, however. Many Internet browsers allow you to disable HTML5 local storage or delete information contained in HTML5 local storage using browser controls.
- Web beacons. We, along with our third-party partners, may also use technologies called Web beacons that communicate information from your Internet browser to a web server. Web beacons can be embedded in web pages, videos, or emails, and can allow a web server to read certain types of information from your browser, check whether you have viewed a particular web page or email message, and determine, among other things, the time and date on which you viewed the Web beacon, the IP address of your computer, and the URL of the web page from which the Web beacon was viewed. We and our partners use Web beacons for a variety of purposes, including analyzing the use of the Services and in conjunction with cookies to provide content and ads that are more relevant to you.

Do Not Track Signal

Some web browsers may transmit “do-not-track” signals to the websites with which the user communicates. We do not currently take action in response to those signals. If an industry standard on responding to such signals is established and accepted, we may reassess how to respond to those signals

Links to Other Websites

Our mobile/online application may contain links or references to third-party owned and/or operated websites that we believe might be of interest to users, including websites of our partners, sponsors, advertisers, and affiliates. We do not control the content of these third-party websites. These third-party websites may send you their own cookies, collect data, or solicit personal information. Once you have clicked on a link to a third-party website and leave our Services, you must read the privacy policy of the third-party website to see how your personal information will be handled.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

WS AGENCY reserves the right to modify its Privacy Policies at any time and without prior notice to the user, so you agree to review them periodically and are responsible for this. By continuing to use the mobile/online application after we make changes, you indicate your consent to those changes.
